Mini Buses

There are several busses that depart from La Paz. They take approx. 30-45 minutes and cost around 3 Bs. Look for Mallasa or Jupapina written in the window.

1. Take bus #253 from Plaza Belzu (see here for google maps) The bus stop is at the start of the route down to Jupapina and you will see a line of buses under a big sign "VETERINARIA CAMPEON". This will pass through Mallasa before arriving in Jupapina, where you should follow the instructions above.
2. Take bus #231 from Avenida Buenos Aires to Jupapina. Ask for the driver to stop at Calle 4 The bus will pass the following key places: Plaza San Pedro, Plaza del Estudiante, Plaza Humboldt, Mallasa and finally, Jupapina.
3. Take any of the many buses from the main road of La Paz (El Prado) that go to Calacoto. Get off the bus at Calacoto calle 8 or Plaza Humboldt where the buses to Jupapina pass by. Here there are also local taxis (Mallasa taxis and Servivalle taxis) that leave from the Plaza and will bring you to our door for 20 bolivianos.

Arriving from the bus terminal

By bus From the main bus Terminal, go down to main road of La Paz called 16 de Julio o often known as el Prado, and follow the instructions above.

By taxi There is a small kiosk with official taxis outside the main door of the terminal. You can ask for a taxi there.
